Job Title	Corporate Development Manager
Job Family	Strategy
Location	Genus Plc Head Office and remote working opportunities
Vacancy Number	EMEA VAC 2010

Introduction

Are you looking to progress your career in Corporate Finance in a company with true purpose and a global reach? Genus plc is a FTSE 250 company that continues to achieve strategic progress and the Corporate Development Director needs your support to deliver the company's strategic priorities. You will have the opportunity to travel and learn at a rapid rate about the fast changing world of agricultural biotech and food production. To be successful in the role of Corporate Development Manager, you should have sound transaction experience, with strong financial modelling, valuation and due diligence skills. You will play a key role in the development of deal opportunities, deal execution and deal integration; first-hand transaction experience is highly desirable.

This is an unmissable opportunity with real potential; suited to an M&A professional looking to accelerate their development and be part of a fast-growing FTSE 250 biotech company.

Company summary

Genus is a FTSE listed world-leading animal genetics company, helping more than 50,000 farmers globally to produce high quality meat and milk more efficiently and sustainably by providing them with superior breeding animals. We do this by accurately selecting animals with desirable characteristics (through DNA analysis) and using them to breed subsequent generations. We also own technology that enables us to screen and process cells for desirable traits, such as gender, and license in technology to make precise, desirable gene edits to animals' DNA. Genus is uniquely placed as a global player, with leading market positions and brands including Genus ABS and Genus PIC. Genus helps farmers to provide safe, affordable and nutritious animal protein to consumers globally.
